

ASSIGNMENT 6

CSCI 567

SECTION 1

USE CASE SPECIFICATIONS:

Use case Name:	Create Customer Account
ID:	1.0
Summary	This use case allows authorized customer to create a new customer account.
Primary Actor(s)	Customer
Secondary Actors	None
Preconditions(s):	The customer should not already have an account.
Main Flow:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. This use case starts when the customer selects the “New Customer? Sign up” option.</li><li>2. The customer enters the First Name, Last Name, Email ID, Enter Password, Address, City, State, Zip Code, Contact number.</li><li>3. The customer then clicks on “Create New Account” Button.</li><li>4. The system validates the details entered by the customer.</li><li>5. The system then creates a unique account for the customer.</li></ol>
Post Conditions:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. This use case ends after the customer confirms the details by selecting the Create New Account Button.</li><li>2. The customer account is now validated.</li><li>3. The unique customer account is created and stored in the appropriate database.</li><li>4. The customer will now be able to login into the account using a username and password.</li><li>5. New customer account is added to the database.</li></ol>
Alternative flows/Exception(s):	Cancel, Clear

Use Case Name:	Create Sales Order
ID:	3.0
Summary:	This use case allows authorized customers to create new sales order.
Primary Actor(s):	Customer
Secondary Actors:	Warehouse staff, Customer
Precondition(s):	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The customer should have an account.</li> <li>2. The customer should be logged into the account.</li> </ol>
Main Flow:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. This use case starts when the customer first searches for the items he/she wants to buy.</li> <li>2. The customer then selects the item he/she wants to buy.</li> <li>3. The customer selects the quantity for the items selected.</li> <li>4. The customer can add more items to the cart.</li> <li>5. The customer reviews the items selected.</li> <li>6. The customer selects the "Proceed to checkout" Button.</li> <li>7. The Customer also confirms the shipping address</li> <li>8. The customer selects the payment method they want to use for the order.</li> <li>9. The customer confirms the sales order by clicking on "Confirm" Button.</li> <li>10. The sales order is now created.</li> <li>11. System generates and produce notification for the customer.</li> </ol>
Post Conditions:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. This use case ends after the customer confirms the submission of the order.</li> <li>2. The sales order can also be updated.</li> <li>3. The confirmed sales order is validated.</li> <li>4. The validated sales order now generates a notification.</li> <li>5. The produced notification is sent to warehouse staff.</li> <li>6. The warehouse staff receives the notification.</li> </ol>
Alternative Flows/Exceptions:	If the required item is not in stock or the required quantity isn't.

Use Case Name:	Generate Sales Order Pick List
ID:	11.2
Summary:	This use case allows the Warehouse staff to Generate the Sales Order Pick List for picking and packing the items.
Primary Actor(s):	Warehouse staff
Secondary Actors:	Shipment staff, Picking Staff, Printer
Precondition(s):	The Sales order should have been created.
Main Flow:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. This use case starts when the Warehouse staff receives the Sales order report.</li> <li>2. The Warehouse staff creates the Sales order Pick list.</li> <li>3. The system generates and produce the pick list.</li> <li>4. The system displays the picklist to staff and staff may choose to print the pick list.</li> <li>5. The Warehouse system then records the pick list to the system.</li> <li>6. The items in the list are picked and packed.</li> </ol>
Post Conditions:	This use case ends after the Sales Order Pick List notification is produced to the Shipment Staff.
Alternative Flows/Exceptions:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Sales Order Pick List not received.</li> <li>2. Invalid Sales Order number in Pick List.</li> </ol>

Use Case Name:	Record Sales Order shipment
ID:	13.0
Summary:	This use case allows the Shipment staff to Record Sales Order shipment details.
Primary Actor(s):	Shipment staff
Secondary Actors:	Warehouse Manager, Customer, A/R System
Precondition(s):	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Shipment staff should have picked the items.</li> <li>2. The Shipment staff should have packed the items picked.</li> </ol>
Main Flow:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. This use case starts when the Shipment staff gets the notification that a Sales Order is picked and packed.</li> <li>2. The system will record the shipping from GPS name and Warehouse address.</li> <li>3. The also record lists customer name, customer address and carrier name.</li> <li>4. The system then records Sales Order number, shipment date, shipment id, carrier name and tracking number.</li> <li>5. System update status of Sales Orders Shipment.</li> <li>6. System generate and produce notification for customer and A/R system.</li> </ol>
Post Conditions:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. This use case ends when the Shipment Staff records all the shipment and racking information for the order.</li> <li>2. The recorded list is then validated.</li> <li>3. A shipment Report is generated.</li> <li>4. The produced shipment report is then sent to the Warehouse Manager for review.</li> </ol>
Alternative Flows/Exceptions:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Missing Shipment tracking information.</li> <li>2. Incorrect Sales Order shipment records.</li> </ol>